

Giuliano Barugola MD Phd

Professional Curriculum Vitae

EMAIL

barugolagiuliano@hotmail.com

PHONE

+393474155

DATE OF BIRTH

03/08/1978

CITY

Verona, 37141, Italia

LINKS

www.chirurgialaparoscopica.eu

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I finished my Phd course studies doing experience on minimally invasive treatment of pancreatico-biliary and digestive diseases. Then my professional interest moved particularly on colorectal diseases. I have a speciality interest in inflammatory bowel disease, colorectal cancer and pelvic floor surgery. I recently refined my training at St Mark's hospital focusing my attention on minimally invasive surgery and in particular on transanal and robotic approach to rectal diseases.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

January 2019 – December 2019

Honorary contract as surgical fellow. London North West Healthcare NHS trust

February 2010 – Until now

General and Colorectal Surgeon MD Phd at Sacrocuore Hospital Negrar

EDUCATION

-Fellowship and Masterclass St Mark's Hospital London UK

January 2019-July 2019

Senior Clinical and Surgical trainee on colorectal disease. Focused on IBD, Complex colorectal cancer, perianal disease. Minimally invasive, transanal and Robotic surgery.

-Phd in surgical science at University of Verona

January 2009 - February 2012

Clinical and surgical phd fellowship titled "biomedical and translational sciences"

-Clinical and surgical fellow on liver and pancreatic transplantation

March 2008 - June 2008

General Surgeon at Le Molinette Hospital

-Residency program at University of Verona

September 2003 - September 2008

The postgraduate school was focused on gastrointestinal surgery

Degree in Medicine and Surgery at University of Verona

September 1997 - April 2003

LANGUAGE SKILL

Good working knowledge English

RESEARCH & PUBLICATIONS

Authors and coauthor of 40 pubmed cited original articles

COLORECTAL SURGICAL SKILL

First surgeon or tutor of about 500 colorectal resections mainly performed laparoscopically or transanally

Barugola Giuliano MD PhD